REFLECTIONS

class of nineteen seventy-five

April 30, 1975

Dear Graduates:

As long as memory lives I shall continue to enjoy the four years which I have spent with the Class of 1975. You did everything possible to make those four years the most rewarding years of my life. The activities, ceremonies, proms, and meetings were planned with a feeling of cooperation and dedication which inevitably brought us to success. Then and now, I will always enjoy the happiness and rewards experienced for the past four years.

I am deeply grateful to Robert Alves and Arthur Chianese for cooperating with me on the publication of a class activity book. This project was undertaken four years ago when our very first activity was held. I am pleased that we were able to raise enough money to make this project possible without cost to the class graduates. This book shares my personal collection of pictures to a class I was privileged to lead for four years.

Sincerely yours,

Robert M. Andreola

THE

STAFF

Fellow Classmates,

Only through the dedication and devotion of Class Advisor Robert Andreola has this book been possible. Words cannot express the gratitude that we, the Class of 1975, owe this man.

During our high school career pictures have been collected of all class functions by Mr. Andreola with the intent of producing such a book. In addition to collecting these pictures we must also look back to each function and remember how sincerely he has worked and how much time he has put in without asking any thanks in return, a deed which cannot go without grateful appreciation. We hope you will enjoy this Class Activity Book and the efforts undertaken by a truly dedicated man, Robert M. Andreola.

Sincerely yours,

JUNIOR PROM COMMITTEE 1974

Farewell to Miss Burns June 13, 1974

The Junior Class of Milford High School paid tribute to Miss Mary Burns, on the occasion of her retirement after having been a foreign language teacher for forty years. Our class, having known Miss Burns in a variety of ways, in and out of the classroom honored her by presenting her with a hand-painted lamp and a decorated plaque depicting her involvement during their first three years of high school activities. The ceremony culminated with a group picture of Miss Burns and the entire Junior Class.

July 11

Dear Class of 1975;

You have done so much for me.

You have been a joy in the classroom even though at times you were "putting me on" (but I loved that too!) – and out of it as well – carrying books for me – greeting me with a friendly "hello" – bringing me coffee – and even making it too!

You made me a part of your Sophomore Ring Dance and your Junior Prom – the two important social events of those two years.

And then there was June 14, 1974! A day unique in my life and unique in the history of Milford High School, I am sure.

You intended it as a tribute to me, and it surely was that.

The words of your president and your vice-president and of Joe Petrini in his poem.

Your gifts – the rose (for a blue lady?) – the plaque (memories come to life) expertly assembled by Mike Julian – and the beautiful hand-painted lamp (it glows with warmth in my home – as you do in my heart).

The background music so capably provided by Karen Zachilli (you even used selections you had heard me mention as favorites. You don't forget anything do you?)

It was a tribute to me. But it was more – much more. It was a tribute to you – a reflection of your goodness – your concern – your self-lessness – your love. Thank you for caring.

You have my prayer that life will be for each one of you all that you want it to be. May you go far – but not so far that you can't – or won't – keep in touch.

And one last word – don't ever lose contact with Miss Slack and Mr. Andreola – they are your friends – in the true sense of the word – always right there where you need them.

God bless you all,

Mary Burns
